Suspect Arrested for Theft of Mail

January 10, 2017 – Yesterday afternoon, a citizen tip helped sheriff's deputies assigned to the city of Cornelius arrest a woman for stealing a large amount of mail.

Larisa Valery Yerygin

On January 9, 2017 at approximately 2pm, an alert citizen called 911 to report a suspicious woman stealing his neighbor's mail. He provided a description of the woman and her minivan. Deputies assigned to the city of Cornelius located the vehicle and conducted a traffic stop.

The citizen was able to positively identify the woman stopped by deputies as the person he saw stealing the mail. During a search of the vehicle, deputies located mail belonging to 93 different people and 42 different addresses in Cornelius and Aloha.

Deputies arrested Larisa Valery Yerygin, 42, of Vancouver, Washington. She was lodged in the Washington County Jail, charged with Mail Theft. Mail Theft is a Class C felony in Oregon and can also be prosecuted in federal court.

Anyone who has information about this crime is requested to call Cornelius Police at 503-629-0111.

The citizen who alerted police is willing to speak to the media.
