CORVALLIS, Ore. – The Benton County Sheriff's Office participated in extra Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants patrol March 10-12, 2017, for the Hemp and Cannabis Fair, held at the Benton County Fairgrounds.

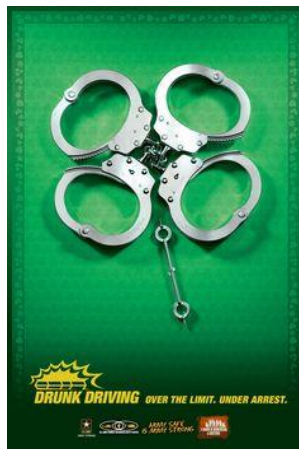

During saturation patrol dates, deputies stopped drivers for 104 traffic violations, while working regular and extra patrol.

Deputies arrested one person for DUII alcohol and none for DUII drugs. There were 11 arrest warrants served (six felony, five misdemeanor), as well as one arrest for reckless driving, and three for failing to carry and present a drivers license.

A total of 32 traffic citations were issued for violations including the following: speeding, no insurance, driving while suspended/revoked. No crashes were reported to BCSO during those dates.

BCSO's next DUII patrol is scheduled for March 16-19, 2017, to coincide with Saint Patrick's Day weekend.

Oregon's DUII enforcement program is committed to reducing the amount of crashes and impaired drivers on our roadways by keeping them off the roadway and arresting them when they choose to drive.
