Cornelius Pursuit ends in Portland

Early this morning, Washington County Deputies serving the City of Cornelius arrested a Milwaukee man after a lengthy pursuit. After his arrest, deputies discovered evidence of additional crimes.

On April 19, 2017, at 1:05 a.m., Washington County Sheriff's deputies attempted to stop Leroy Foos, age 45 of Milwaukee, for suspected DUII. Mr. Foos initially pulled over, but then fled in his 2011 Toyota Corolla. Mr. Foos led deputies on a pursuit on Highway 26 east to SW Scholls Ferry Rd. where, with assistance from Oregon State Police, Hillsboro Police Department and Beaverton Police Department were able to deploy spike strips and utilize a PIT maneuver to stop Mr. Foos.

Evidence of burglary was located in Mr. Foos' vehicle. The investigation is ongoing and additional charges are likely.

Mr. Foos was arrested for DUII (drugs), Reckless Driving and Attempt to Elude and lodged in the Washington County Jail
