

Hundreds of Kaiser Permanente Northwest employees participate in Martin Luther King Jr. Days of Service

- When: Monday, January 15
7:30 a.m. - 4 p.m.
- 12:15 p.m.: Kaiser Permanente Northwest President Ruth Brinkley will give remarks
- Where: Trillium Family Services Parry Center for Children, 3415 SE Powell Blvd, Portland, OR 97202
- Visuals: There is an opportunity to capture still photos and video of employees completing a variety of building improvement projects including painting, cleaning, and outdoor maintenance (weather permitting).
- What: The Parry Center for Children offers short-term, on-site psychiatric services for young people requiring 24-hour support for emotional and behavioral challenges. Volunteers will participate in a variety of building beautification projects.
- Background: For the 14th consecutive year, Kaiser Permanente physicians, dentists and staff are celebrating Martin Luther King Jr. day by rolling up their sleeves in remembrance of Dr. King's commitment to community service.
- From Friday, January 12 through Thursday, January 18, more than 1100 Kaiser Permanente employees, friends, and family members will volunteer at a total of 49 service projects across the Northwest region.
- Who:
- 100 Kaiser Permanente volunteers including employees, friends and family members
 - Ruth Brinkley, President, Kaiser Foundation Hospitals and Health Plan of the Northwest
- Contact: Liz Sauer, communications specialist
Mobile: 608-469-9250
elizabeth.w.sauer@kp.org