16-year-old Shot at Classic Car Show

RELEASE DATE: May 25, 2024
CONTACT PERSON: On-duty PIO
CASE NUMBER: 24-21517

Gresham, Ore.— A 16-year-old was shot at a classic car show in North Central Gresham. At approximately 3:15 p.m., 911 calls started coming in reporting a shooting in a parking lot in the 1800 block of NW Fairview Dr. Officers quickly responded to the location of the car show which is just a few blocks from the Gresham Police Department.

Upon arriving, officers located the juvenile with an apparent gunshot wound. Officers provided medical care after a bystander began providing initial care and applied a tourniquet. Responding paramedics transported the victim to an area hospital for further treatment. The victim is expected to survive.

Officers collected evidence of the shooting and interviewed witnesses. They are working to determine what led up to the shooting and identify those involved. The parking lot has since been re-opened to the public.
