Statement from Jeremy Covey's Family

March 4, 2021

On Friday, March 5, 2021, the family of Jeremy Covey released the following statement to the media:

Two weeks ago, our world was turned upside down by the sudden and untimely death of our beloved Jeremy. He had just been offered a new beginning and his chance at that was taken away. While our grief is immeasurable, so is our hope for justice.

We want to express our unending appreciation to the Washington County Sheriff's Office, Washington County Major Crimes Team, Beaverton Police and all agencies involved in apprehending Jeremy's murderer. Your kindness, tireless hours, diligence, and swiftness will not be forgotten. When you looked Jeremy's mother in the eyes and said you promised, we knew you meant it. Thank you.

We are overwhelmed by the outpouring of love, condolences and support from family, friends and those who truly loved Jeremy. We thank you all for your prayers and hope you will understand our need for privacy as we learn to heal and move forward seeking justice for Jeremy.

The family will not be doing any media interviews at this time.
