

MEDIA ADVISORY

Contact: Dave Northfield (503) 329-1989 dnorthfield@oahhs.org

OREGON HOSPITAL BRIEFING THURSDAY

Lake Oswego, Ore. – January 18, 2022 – As we move closer to the forecasted peak of the Omicron surge, Becky Hultberg, President and CEO of the Oregon Association of Hospitals and Health Systems (OAHHS), will meet with reporters on January 20 to answer their questions about hospital capacity, COVID-19, and other related issues.

WHEN: January 20, 11:00 a.m.

VENUE: Zoom. The briefing is for media only. Please register in advance by visiting: <https://oahhs-org.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZYqcumrqqMqEtIhG15IESyictUvT5-Y1QZm>

Becky will speak briefly to start, then open it up for questions.

###

About OAHHS: Founded in 1934, OAHHS is a statewide, nonprofit trade association that works closely with local and national government leaders, business and citizen coalitions, and other professional health care organizations to enhance and promote community health and to continue improving Oregon's innovative health care delivery system.

