

Oregon Military Museum Historic Park Opening May 21, 2022

The Oregon Military Museum (OMM) is opening its Historic Park to the public for the first time in over a decade.

Visitors of all ages are invited to experience the two historic buildings anchoring OMM's Historic Park, including the Quartermaster Storehouse (a walk-through interpretive center) and Battery A Field Artillery Horse Barn (featuring a collection of Japanese and American artillery). The Park features a four-tank display and will host events and activities throughout the season. OMM's Historic Park is free and open to the public Thursday-Saturday, 10am-3pm, Armed Forces Day (May 21) through Veterans Day Weekend (November 12).

As part of Opening Day events on Saturday May 21, visitors can take part in the sights and sounds of the Vietnam War era while reenactors showcase period military vehicles and display tents. A special invite is extended to Oregon National Guard and Oregon Military Department service members, employees, and their families for a sneak peek on Friday, May 20.

OMM invites service members, veterans, their families, and the public to be part of our Volunteer Corps. Visit <https://bit.ly/OMMVolunteer> to learn more about our many volunteer opportunities, including Historic Park Attendants.

The Oregon Military Museum honors, shares, and preserves Oregon's military heritage and legacy, including the Oregon National Guard, the state's early militias, and all branches of the US Armed Forces.
