Deputies Ask For Help Locating Missing and Endangered Autistic Juvenile

October 5, 2022

On Wednesday, October 5, 2022, at about 3:30 pm, Washington County Sheriff's Office deputies responded to a missing juvenile call in Hillsboro. Deputies learned that 17-year-old Fiona Jordan had not made it to class at the Hillsboro Library in the morning. Her last known location is believed to be around the intersection of NE Cornell Road and NE Stucki Avenue in Hillsboro. She was last seen wearing a black short sleeve shirt, blue shorts, sandals, and a backpack with sparkles.

Jordan is autistic and has the mental capacity of a 6-year-old. She is familiar with the TriMet system and may be riding the bus in the Tanasbourne area. Anyone with information about Jordan is asked to call Washington County Sheriff's Office at 503-629-0111 or their local law enforcement agency.
